

REAL TURKEY DAYS IN PIONEER TIMES

Wild Turkeys Once Thick Enough for 365 Thanksgiving Days a Year in Iowa

ALL GOOD NOT RESERVED FOR US

Game Plentiful when Upper Mississippi Was Richest Frontier
on Record

M'GREGOR, Iowa, Nov. 27.—If you are thinking that all the good Thanksgiving eats of the earth are reserved for us of the present day in Iowa, just listen to this recipe for mince meat given by R. Quigley, state senator from Clayton county, who back in the fifties lived in a cabin in a clearing down on the Turkey river:

The neck of a deer boiled; 1/2 peck wild crab apples, the big yellow kind; chop venison and apples together; add from the "grape barrel" in the cellar 1/2 gallon wild grapes floating in their own wine made with boiled wild honey.

Rest of Menu

Here is the rest of the Thanksgiving menu. Baked wild turkey, and just so much as a canvas back out-clashes a domestic duck, just so and more does the wild turkey surpass the barnyard variety in richness of flavor. Then the way it was baked: The pioneer mother took her largest Dutch oven. Imagine a big cast iron kettle with a flat bottom, three legs, an oval cover with an eye in the center to poke the poker through and an upright rim to hold on the coals, and you know what it looked like. In this she put the turkey, raked a pile of coals to one corner of the fireplace, set it over them, put on the cover, and heaped coals on top of it. Behold! when done a turkey with every whit and atom of its smell and taste retained and of a golden brownness which would make a modern range oven turn sea green to see.

With the turkey were served corn pone, a raised kind of corn bread of a fluffiness unknown to cooks nowadays; a sauce of wild plums sweetened with maple sugar, and a bowl of cracked walnuts, butternuts, hickory and hazel nuts.

Wild Turkeys Thick

Every day could have been Thanksgiving down on the Turkey river. When the first white men explored its beautiful valley in 1834 they found wild turkeys by the thousand flying over its waters and nesting in the timber on its banks. They borrowed the Sac Indian name for the stream, Pena-Kum-Sebo, meaning Turkey water, and the river has been known by that name ever since. Several miles up they paddled their canoe into a branch of the main stream where the turkeys were even more numerous and called it the Little Turkey.

In the early days there were no fences, the greatest enemy of the young of the wild turkey, and the birds stayed along the river the year round, building their nests in the timber. A hole was scratched out on the ground and the eggs laid in it. Whenever the hen left the nest she carefully covered up the eggs with leaves. So numerous were the wild turkeys in the first years of settlement that the pioneers often shot them from their cabin doors. A common method of capturing them was with a rail trap. A square pen was made in the woods out of poles laid across each other with cracks between them and covered with a roof of poles. Under one side a hole was dug just large enough to admit a turkey. A little trench led to it from outside. In this corn was strewn. A little pile of corn was put inside the pen. The turkey eating the corn in the trench spied the corn inside and went up through the hole into the pen. Once in, she would under no consideration ever go back through the trench but spent her energies poking her head through the cracks between the poles, endeavoring to get out that way.

The valley of the Turkey as it winds through several counties in northeastern Iowa abounded in early days in many other kinds of game beside wild turkeys. The names the settlers gave to a number of its branches suggest what they were. Elk, Wolf, Bear, Panther and Doe creeks are all tributaries of the main stream.

Never Such Frontier

"Their never was, there never will be again such a frontier as the upper Mississippi Valley," said one of the pioneers who came as a girl to live on the Turkey in 1837. "No one with a gun and an axe ever needed to lack for food, warmth and shelter. There were deer, elk and wild turkeys in the woods, bass and trout in the streams, abundance of wild fruits and nuts, wild honey and after the first year corn and potatoes on the breaking."

The few necessities which the woods and rivers did not afford the pioneers of the Turkey river country, they obtained at the "Lead Mines," as Dubuque was called in those days. They fashioned rafts of black walnut logs and loaded them with the furs they had secured, and floated down the Turkey and Mississippi to Dubuque. They sold the raft and

CHILDREN AND POOR DEWEY'S CHARGES

Makes Special Effort to Give Them Thanksgiving Day Feast Each Year

BIG DINNER AT THE CITY MISSION

Baskets Packed with Good Things Sent to Those Who Are Unable to Come

By a plan which has successfully been carried out in past years by D. C. Dewey, superintendent of the La Crosse Mission, it has been made possible for every child and poor person of the city to have a Thanksgiving dinner, and as bountiful a one as is served on the most exclusive tables.

Each year on Thanksgiving day, with the aid of popular subscription and a number of the church people, it is served at the mission hall, 325 Jay street.

This is an event at which not only the poor are welcome, but one that is attended by the mission workers and numbers of church members.

Specially for Children

The central object of the dinner is to have in attendance all of the mission Sunday school children, numbering in the neighborhood of seventy-five.

Diverging from the practice of other years in obtaining turkeys for the feast, Superintendent Dewey turned this year to the more common, but none the less welcome chicken.

More than forty fowls were procured for the occasion. In other years the committee in charge of the preparation of the dinner has found that they have underestimated the number in attendance, and so this year they laid in a plentiful stock.

Aside from this number of birds, many were packed in baskets, along with other good things to eat, and distributed to the poor families of the city that could not attend the mission feast. It is the plan of the mission on this day that not a family in the city go hungry, or without a dinner such as the most fortunate can afford.

During his work among the poor families of the city Superintendent Dewey has found cases of extreme poverty, especially at this time of the year. He arranged, without exception, to make them comfortable today.

In former years, of those attending the dinner, children have been in the majority, although numbers of homeless men, finding that a feast has been prepared for their benefit, gladly grasp the opportunity.

Spend the Day

The plans of last year, which were duplicated this year, make it possible for the children to spend the day at the mission hall.

Early in the morning, a prayer service was held at the mission, at which the workers were present. The cooking of the feast immediately commenced afterward in the kitchen.

Superintendent Dewey has arranged a program of music and games for children that extends over the entire day. A short song service is to be held in the afternoon, with regular evening service of the mission at 8 o'clock.

GUILTY OF ASSAULT

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Nov. 27.—After deliberating for two hours today the jury in the case of E. Graham Wilson, wealthy Jefferson county man, accused of attack upon Miss Kate Turner, crippled church worker of Charleston, returned a verdict guilty, with a recommendation for mercy. This verdict carries with it a penalty of from seven to twenty years in the penitentiary. The verdict of guilty without recommendation of mercy would have meant death.

T. R. IN CHILI

SANTIAGO, Chili, Nov. 27.—Theodore Roosevelt left Santiago today a special train, for a tour of the south.

WEDDING SURPRISE TO PAIR'S FRIENDS

William Yeo and Anne J. Webb Married at Congregational Parsonage by Rev. Rowilson

Mr. William Yeo and Mrs. Anne J. Webb were quietly married last evening at the Congregational parsonage by the Rev. C. C. Rowilson. Both parties are well known in the city, having resided here a number of years. Mr. Yeo is a member of the Yeo & Clark Flouring Mill company. Mrs. Yeo is the mother of the late Mrs. W. L. Smith. The affair had been kept a profound secret, even from their most intimate friends. The bride wore a becoming toilet of a soft shade of gray poplin, trimmed with embroidered motifs, and corsage bouquet of violets and roses. Mr. and Mrs. Yeo will reside at 330 North Seventh street.

PROCLAMATION By The President

The season is at hand in which it has been our long respected custom as a people to turn in praise and thanksgiving to Almighty God for his manifold mercies and blessings to us as a nation. The year that has just passed has been marked in a peculiar degree by manifestations of His gracious and beneficent Providence. We have not only had peace throughout our own borders and with the nations of the world, but that peace has brightened by constantly multiplying evidence of genuine friendship of mutual sympathy and understanding, and of the happy operation of many elevating influences both of ideal and of practice. The nation has been not only prosperous, but has proved its capacity to take calm counsel amid the rapid movement of affairs and deal with its own life in a spirit of candor, righteousness and comity. We have seen the practical completion of a great work at the isthmus of Panama, which not only exemplifies the nation's abundant resources to accomplish what it will and the distinguished skill and capacity of its public servants, but promises the beginning of a new age, of new contrasts, new neighborhoods, new sympathies, new bonds, and new achievements of co-operation and peace.

'Righteousness exalteth the nation' and 'Peace on earth good will toward men' furnish the only foundation upon which can be built the lasting achievements of the human spirit. The year has brought us the satisfaction of work well done and fresh visions of our duty which will make the work of the future better still.

Now, therefore, I, Woodrow Wilson, president of the United States of America, do hereby designate Thursday, the 27th of November next, as a day of Thanksgiving and prayer, and invite the people throughout the land to cease from their wonted occupations and in their several homes and places of worship render thanks to Almighty God.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington, this 23rd day of October, in the year of Our Lord, 1913, and of the Independence of the United States of America the 138th. (Signed)

By the president—WOODROW WILSON.
W. J. BRYAN, Secretary of State.

NO AGREEMENT IN COLORADO STRIKE

Conference Between Miners and Operators Adjourns Without Action

ARREST HALTS TERMS DISCUSSION

Representatives of Men Leave Meeting When
Word Comes of Union
Official's Arrest

DENVER, Col., Nov. 27.—The conference between miners and operators called by Gov. Ammons to settle the southern Colorado coal strike adjourned shortly after midnight today without definite action. The "peace conference" is ended unless both side adopt suggestions to be made by the governor today.

When word reached the miners' representatives last night that Ed Doyle, district secretary-treasurer of the United Miners, had been arrested by militiamen at Trinidad, they refused to continue the conference until he was released. General Chase at Trinidad refused to set him free and Gov. Ammons finally summarily ordered his release. The order was carried out immediately but it was said Ammons instructed Chase if he had information connecting Doyle with the recent murder of George Belcher, chief Baldwin detective, he should be rearrested by civil authorities.

A reward of $1,000 for the arrest of A. B. McGarry, national organizer of the United Miners was offered today. McGarry is supposed to be in Des Moines.

QUIET HOLIDAY FOR STATE'S GOVERNOR

Thanksgiving at Madison Is Different This Year Than
When Married Men
Ruled

MADISON, Wis., Nov. 27.—Thanksgiving at the executive mansion this year will be in contrast with the celebration of that holiday held during the administrations of governors blessed with families more generously numbered than that of F. E. McGovern. The Badger state's bachelor governor leads a quiet life socially, diverted only by the activities and tension of administration and politics.

The executive family consists of Gov. McGovern and his two nieces, the Misses Catherine and Frances McGovern, both young women being students at the university. These three, according to present plans, will make up the executive's Thanksgiving dinner company. The turkey—plump, moderately fat and weighing seventeen pounds—was carefully selected by the governor's housekeeper, Nora, and the dinner will be served by the manmaid, Ole.

The public duties of the governor and the studies of the Misses McGovern so occupy their time that all matters related to the conduct of the domestic affairs of the executive residence are delegated to the housekeeper, whose competence is becoming proverbial in the capital city, and who is understood to be the real dictator of the old East Gilman street limestone house which, although almost the least pretentious of the residences of the neighborhood, is nevertheless dignified with the name of mansion.

CAR HITS MACHINE DAMAGE IS LARGE

One Is Killed, Twelve Hurt, Building Wrecked
and a Fire Started

CHICAGO, Nov. 27.—An automobile, carrying a bridal party home from a pre-nuptial affair, collided with a street car at midnight last night; a girl who was to have been a bridesmaid at her sister's wedding was killed; twelve others were injured, two seriously, an apartment house was partly wrecked and firemen early today ended a successful battle with a blaze that was a sequence to the automobile tragedy.

Miss Norma Ahlstrand was the girl killed. She died of a fractured skull. Caught amidstships by the McGoverns, both young women being students at the university. These three, according to present plans, will make up the executive's Thanksgiving dinner company. The turkey—plump, moderately fat and weighing seventeen pounds—was carefully selected by the governor's housekeeper, Nora, and the dinner will be served by the manmaid, Ole.

Two seriously injured were: Jos. Edberg, passenger on the street car, whose leg was crushed, and Ramon G. Irving, a violin teacher, who suffered concussion of the brain.

ALTOONA, Pa., Nov. 27.—Three persons were killed and two probably fatally injured late yesterday when an automobile was struck by a freight train at Canoe creek, while endeavoring to cross the tracks ahead of the train. The dead: Mrs. Magdalena Bissell, 30 years old; Miss Anna V. Bissell, her daughter, 14; Miss Frances Segrist, 18.

CHURCHES OBSERVE THANKSGIVING DAY

With Few Exceptions
Praise Services Are Held in City's Places of Worship

MANY JOIN FORCES FOR THE DAY

A Feeling of Fellowship Unites Congregations in Union Meetings to Give Thanks

With but a few exceptions, the churches of the city held special services this morning, in commemoration of Thanksgiving day.

As usual, on this day, there was a strong feeling of fellowship among the churches, and many congregations of different denominations joined their services.

Pastors of churches throughout the land unite in the idea that the proper manner in which to begin the day that has been set aside as national holiday of feasting and merriment, there should be short church services, in the form of a prayer of thanks for plenty during the year.

Rev. W. P. Christy, pastor of the English Evangelical Lutheran church, conducted services at the church, corner West avenue and Ferry streets, this morning, at 10 o'clock.

Four Combine
The First Baptist, the First Congregational, West Avenue Methodist and the Universalist congregations, united at 10 o'clock for special services.

Rev. Carlos C. Rowilson, pastor of the First Congregational church, delivered the address of the morning.

AMERICANS FEAST IN MEXICO TODAY

Despite Danger of Conditions U. S. Citizens in Capital Observe National Day

LIND REPORTS FROM TAMPICO

Understood He Advises Against Landing Marines
as Police to Protect Property

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 27.—Thanksgiving day was ushered in in Mexico City with much uneasiness among Americans, owing to rumors of a serious situation at Tampico and the possibility that marines might be landed there. The fact that a German warship had been rushed there perturbed the citizens from the Fatherland, but they have taken measures to protect themselves in case of trouble in Mexico City.

The Germans have a military organization among themselves and are planning to purchase fifty horses and fifty beavers. In case of a siege, the Germans expect to be in a position to supply their colony with meat.

Have Turkey Feast

The American colony observed Thanksgiving day with a union Protestant service where United States Consul General Shanklin read President Wilson's proclamation. Charge O'Shaughnessy and his wife attended services at the Catholic church. This afternoon there was a reception at the embassy.

About 200 American families sat down to a dinner of wild turkey today. Cranberries were scarce, but otherwise the dinners were much the same as would be served at home.

Lind Reports

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—A wireless report setting forth the actual conditions in the Tampico-Tuxpam districts of Mexico was received today from John Lind. It is understood that he reported conditions serious, but not particularly critical.

It is also reported that Lind has recommended that no marines be landed at present. The revolutionary commanders in the district, he says, have agreed that the property as well as the personal rights of all foreigners will be respected. Details of the report are withheld but it is stated that no change in the administration policy in Mexico will be made necessary by it.

It is believed here that Carranza will today or tomorrow announce the establishment of a regular capital in North Mexico. He now dominates most of that region, and if he establishes a capital and sets up an organized government, he will be in a position to call on Washington to recognize his rights as a belligerent. By doing so, this government would assume no responsibilities for Carranza but it would simplify operations of the customs service along the Rio Grande.

Ready to Go South

EL PASO, Texas, Nov. 27.—General "Pancho" Villa did not waste time today exulting over the victory of his rebel troops over the combined federal forces at Tierra Blanca. He was too busy reorganizing his forces and caring for the rebel wounded.

The constitutionalist leader says practically all of his soldiers have been withdrawn from Tierra Blanca, only a line of pickets remaining to prevent a federal attempt to resume the attack. Villa does not expect such an attack, believing the enemy is disorganized.

He declined to discuss his plans, but it is believed in a few days he will rally forth with most of his force and attack Chihuahua City.

Reports of executions of federal prisoners on the battle field continue to come in and Villa does not deny them. It is impossible to learn how many men were slain thus.

WOULD MEET U. S. DUTY

REGINA, Sask., Nov. 27.—With only three members voting against the resolution, the legislature last night called upon the government of Canada to take the duty off wheat, and flour so that these articles of Canadian produce may enter the United States free of duty.

Weather

For La Crosse and vicinity: Unsettled weather tonight and Friday, with probably occasional rains; not much change in temperature.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—For Wisconsin: Unsettled weather tonight and Friday; probably occasional light rains in south portion; not much change in temperature; light to moderate variable winds.

For Minnesota: Generally fair tonight and Friday; not much change in temperature; light to moderate southerly winds.

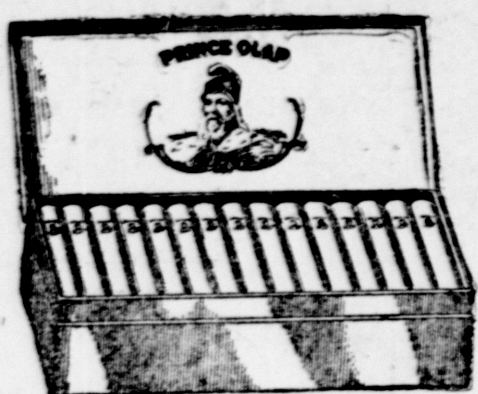

For Iowa: Unsettled weather tonight, not much change in temperature; light to moderate variable winds.

U. S. AGAIN LOOKS FOR CRAZY SNAKE; BUT NOT TO PUNISH HIM FOR HIS CRIMES

Chief Crazy Snake.

The desire of Indian officials to pay in person to Chitto Harjo, or Crazy Snake, as he was known in the days of his leadership over the Snake clan of Creek Indians, a sum of money which is to his credit in the U. S. Indian agency at Muskogee, Okla., may cause another search to be made for the Indian who in the spring 1909 literally stood the minions of the law in Oklahoma on their heads and disappeared.

BLACK CAT EDITOR KILLED

PORTLAND, Me., Nov. 27.—Herman D. Umbstaetter, founder and editor of the Black Cat Magazine, is dead from a bullet wound inflicted by the accidental discharge of his rifle while hunting near his country estate at Central Levell. Jack London is among the literary discoveries of Umbstaetter, while many other prominent writers received their first "lift" from him.

Don't Poison Baby.

Forty years ago almost every mother thought her child must have PAREGORIC or laudanum to make it sleep. These drugs will produce sleep, and a few drops too many will produce the SLEEP FROM WHICH THERE IS NO WAKING. Many are the children who have been killed or whose health has been ruined for life by paregoric, laudanum and morphine, each of which is a narcotic product of opium. Druggists are prohibited from selling either of the narcotics named to children at all, or to anybody without labelling them "poison." The definition of "narcotic" is: "A medicine which relieves pain and produces sleep, but which in poisonous doses produces stupor, coma, convulsions and death." The taste and smell of medicines containing opium are disguised, and sold under the names of "Drops," "Cordials," "Soothing Syrups," etc. You should not permit any medicine to be given to your children without your or your physician's knowledge of what it is composed. CASTORIA DOES NOT CONTAIN NARCOTICS, if it bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher. Genuine Castoria always bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

WEST SALEM, WIS.

The Mesdames Oiberg, Hart, McKown, Torrance and Asplin of La Crosse attended the party here on Wednesday given by the Mesdames S. R. Wakefield, M. McElowney and Charles Knudson.

Miss Lillian Mau, who attends normal at La Crosse, came home on Wednesday on account of sickness. She was able to take up her school work again on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Smith received a telegram Saturday evening from Madison, Wis., telling of the severe illness of their son Leverage, who is there attending the university, and that an operation would be necessary at once. Mrs. Smith, accompanied by Mrs. C. Smith, left on the late train Saturday evening and expected to reach Madison about 3 o'clock Sunday morning.

Miss Hazel Viets of La Crosse spent Sunday here with Miss Ruth Leissring, returning home Monday morning.

Dr. S. R. Wakefield made a professional trip to Bangor Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Heritage have sold their home here and will move to Sparta very soon.

Mrs. Elsen and mother, Mrs. Ready of Bangor attended the party at the home of Mrs. Knudson on Wednesday.

Miss Gusta Pfaff of La Crosse is spending a few days here with her sister, Mrs. Otto Kirmse.

Mrs. Ben Larson and sister spent Tuesday in La Crosse shopping.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fischer were pleasantly surprised at their home Saturday evening when a company of their friends dropped in upon them, bringing a bountiful supper which was served about 7 o'clock.

The guests presented the newly married couple with some very pretty silverware. Those present were the Mesdames Florence Best, Mildred Vick, Irene Rahm, Lillian Mau, Hazel Brown and Faye Aldrich, and Messrs. Edward Jackson, Carl Reichtold, Tracy Johnson, Arthur Herman, Charles Coburn and Waldemar Rhodley. All had a splendid time and left wishing Mr. and Mrs. Fischer a very happy and prosperous future.

Miss Helen Mar Taylor, who has been on the sick list for the past week, is much better.

Mr. Edward Jackson left Saturday night for Black River Falls, where he will spend Thanksgiving with his parents.

Miss Florence Best was a La Crosse caller Saturday.

A number of people from here went down to see the Wisconsin Players at the normal Friday night.

The basket social given by the Girls' Glee club Friday evening, was well attended and an enjoyable time had by all.

$250,000 FIRE LOSS

EDMONTON, Alta., Nov. 27.—The McKenny block, in the heart of the wholesale district, was destroyed by fire early today with a loss of $250,000. The flames were discovered before midnight and raged until early this morning. Wholesale firms occupied five floors.

COPPER STRIKER SHOT

PHILIP MICHELCHICH FATALLY WOUNDED IN BACK AND GUARD IS ARRESTED

CALUMET, Mich., Nov. 27.—During a riot Philip Michelchich, a young copper striker, was shot through the back and perhaps fatally wounded at Calumet today. Lloyd Lyman of Ypsilanti, employed as a mounted deputy to guard the property of the Calumet & Hecla Mining company, was arrested charged with the shooting, and is held at the local jail to await the outcome of the injuries.

The disorders started when deputies attempted to arrest strikers whom they charged with throwing rocks at strikebreakers on their way to the mines. Charged by the deputies, the strikers fled to union headquarters for protection. Michelchich is alleged to have received his wounds in a scuffle which followed an attempt by Lyman to force his way into the building.

A. C. L. HEAD DIES

WILMINGTON, N. C., Nov. 27.—President Thomas M. Emerson of the Atlantic Coast Line Railway company, is dead at his home here as the result of an attack of acute indigestion. Born in Preble county, Ohio, Emerson's first position was a railroad clerk at Hagenstown, Ind. He was 62 years old.

ONLY ONE

The Record in La Crosse is a Unique One

If the reader has a "bad back" or any kidney ills and is looking for an effective kidney medicine, better depend on the remedy endorsed by people you know. Doan's Kidney Pills have given great satisfaction in such cases. La Crosse citizens testify to this. Here is a case of it:

Mrs. Mary Seales, 1712 Market St., La Crosse, Wis., says: "I suffered from lameness across my back and I was tired and worn-out. I didn't know just what was causing the trouble and I didn't seem able to get relief from the remedies I tried. I had often read about Doan's Kidney Pills curing other people of kidney complaint, so I made up my mind to try them. I often suffered from dizzy spells and when I bent over forward, I was sure to have an attack of backache. Doan's Kidney Pills drove away the lameness and backaches and did me a world of good in every way. All that I have said about Doan's Kidney Pills when I have recommended them before, holds good. They can certainly be relied on."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

THE TRIBUNE'S Daily Short Story

Drusilla's Thanksgiving

By KATE CLEVES

(Copyright, 1913, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate)

It was the day before Thanksgiving that Drusilla Orde made up her mind to throw up her position in Hannan's department store and go back to Laurelton.

For fifteen years she had stood behind the glove counter in the big store and fitted gloves on all sorts and shapes of hands.

"I hate it; I hate it; I hate it!" she had cried to herself for five years; that was the last five years of her service there, after the novelty of being a wage earner in a large city had worn off. Now she detested the tiny third floor room, which was all she could afford even after ten years' work; she hated the smell of toast made over a gas jet; the odor of coffee was detestable when it clung about the little space in which she slept and ate two meals each day.

For the first five years she had been able to send money down to her parents in Laurelton—a tiny sum each week, but enough to help. Then they had died and the place had been sold and Drusilla had never gone back. The little money from the place was hoarded in the bank.

But now it was the day before Thanksgiving and all the store clerks had been full of holiday plans. Many were going to spend the day in their homes among their own people, and poor Drusilla grew more homesick as the hours flew past. She had few friends in the city and no one had invited her to dinner.

At the lunch hour she went to the bank and drew out almost all her money; then she went to her little room and packed her trunk and sent it to the railroad station. When she had paid her landlady and bidden her good-bye she went back to the store and gave up her position.

When the little envelope containing the money due her was tucked in her pocketbook and she was free to say farewell to her fellow clerks and go, a strange restlessness took possession of the little woman.

When she was on the train she strained her eager eyes for the first glimpse of the familiar mountain that overshadowed Laurelton. The shabby old coaches were familiar enough and the face of the elderly conductor who took her ticket was that of an old acquaintance.

"How do you do, Mr. Bemis?" she asked, joyfully.

The conductor peered under the edge of her black hat.

"Drusilla Orde! Good Lord, girl, I ain't seen you in years! Well," he said, "you ain't grown any younger."

Drusilla tucked her graying hair behind her pink ears. "And you haven't got any more manners, Dan Bemis," she retorted.

Dan chuckled. "Your tongue's as sharp as ever, Drusilla! Well, where you going to stop—at your Aunt Lucetta's?"

"I guess so," said Drusilla.

"Well, you going to stay a spell?"

"All winter," said Drusilla recklessly.

"Then you must come and see us. Flora'll be pleased to meet you again," and Mr. Bemis went on to collect other tickets and to enjoy neighborly chat with the passengers.

And to each passenger he imparted the information that Drusilla Orde was in the front seat there and that she was going to stay in Laurelton all winter.

So, it was that when Drusilla arrived at Laurelton in the early November twilight she found many pleasant greetings from people whom she scarcely knew; some had been old schoolmates who now were fathers and mothers of families; others were children who had grown to manhood and womanhood during her absence. Warned by these cheery greetings, Drusilla walked on down the familiar road that led to the village.

The air was crisp and cold and the smell of the pines was invigorating to her lungs stifled by the close air of the city. As she walked the years seemed to fall from Drusilla until, when she reached the village street she was quite twenty again. In spite of the gray threads in her brown hair.

She passed the Methodist church, the moving picture theater, which was a glittering innovation, the meat market, the postoffice, and came suddenly upon Sam Thorne's drug store.

The red and green lights confronted her like the eyes of some dragon-like, unpleasant memory.

Drusilla had entirely forgotten Sam Thorne—and it had been her quarrel with Sam Thorne which had been the cause of her leaving Laurelton.

She hurried past the brightly lighted doorway, but paused near the window, where she caught a glimpse of a young man in a white coat dispensing ice cream soda to a group of laughing girls. At first she thought it was Sam Thorne himself until she recollected that Sam must be stout and rather bald by this time.

Her cheeks were burning as she hastened on with this old memory tugging at her heart. The spirit of Thanksgiving was in the air. House-mothers were marketing with ample baskets on their arms and there was a general air of festivity.

Drusilla's Aunt Lucetta Mills lived in a little white house beyond the schoolhouse and Drusilla's old home had been a few hundred yards further on.

She turned in at the little white gate which seemed smaller than ever to her eyes and felt a sudden depression as she noted that the house was dark.

Her repeated knocks at the side door brought a neighbor from an adjoining house.

"Lucetta Mills has gone over to Rockybrook to her daughter's," said the woman peering curiously at the dark form on the porch. "Who be it?"

"Thank you," said Drusilla stiffly, and she waited until the woman had gone back into her own house before she went away.

Her heart beat rebelliously as she realized that there was only one thing to do now. That was to go to the hotel and stay until Aunt Lucetta came home.

She would have to spend Thanksgiving alone after all. It was more bitter to spend it here in Laurelton, who had witnessed so many happy gatherings, than it would have been in the city.

Now she was at the gate of her old home. She leaned against it and stared at the transformation that had taken place in the old house. The outlines were the same but some skillful hand had rebuilt, preserved, and improved until the house looked as if it must have looked that day when Drusilla's father brought her mother there a bride.

Drusilla wondered who had bought the old place—Aunt Lucetta had never told her in those gossip monthly letters. Drusilla had had an ill-formed plan in her mind of buying back the old home and living there—doing dressmaking or millinery.

She bowed her head on the gatepost and listened to the wind blowing through the trees, with hopeless longing in her heart. How easily, carelessly, one parted with happiness. Drusilla never heard a step on the path nor a voice that addressed her in concerned inquiry.

It was not until firm hands lifted her head and turned her face to the searching light of the full moon that Drusilla cried out sharply and drew back.

"Who is it?" asked a voice that was vaguely familiar.

Drusilla's head drooped wearily. She was very tired and she did not care if folks did hear that she had been found staring wistfully at her old home.

"I am Drusilla Orde—I used to live here," she said.

"Drusilla? No!" The man strode forward.

"Drusilla, don't you know me?" he asked tensely.

"It's—it's Sam Thorne," said Drusilla faintly. "What are you doing here?"

"I live here—I bought the old place, Drusilla—I had a silly notion that you might come home some day, and if you did I wanted you to find the old place and me waiting for you. Of course I knew you might get married—" he hesitated.

Drusilla laughed softly—such a happy laugh.

"There isn't a chance of my getting married, Sam, unless you ask me," she said bravely.

"Do you mean it, Drusilla?" he demanded eagerly. "I've been waiting all these years—and it's been hard—and if you do mean it, dear, we can go over to the minister's and be married tonight. You can spend Thanksgiving in your own home."

"Let us go, Sam—to the minister's!" said Drusilla.

FEW REPLIES TO INQUIRIES

MADISON, Wis., Nov. 27.—Replies to the state vice commission's questionnaire on Wisconsin conditions are not coming in any great volume, and members of the commission are disappointed at the apparent lack of interest. The proportion of answers is small, an example being the city of Madison, where 55 letters were sent to social workers, ministers, professional men and others who are supposed to have knowledge of local conditions. Only five took pains to send in replies.

AT ONCE! CLOGGED NOSTRILS OPEN, HEAD COLDS AND CATARRH VANISH

Breathe Freely! Clears Stuffed-up, Inflamed Nose and Head and Stops Catarrhal Discharge. Cures Dull Headache.

Try "Ely's Cream Balm." Get a small bottle anyway, just to try it—Apply a little in the nostrils and instantly your clogged nose and stopped-up air passages of the head will open; you will breathe freely; dullness and headache disappear. By morning! the catarrh, cold-in-head or catarrhal sore throat will be gone. End such misery now! Get the small bottle of "Ely's Cream Balm" at any drug store. This sweet, fragrant balm dissolves by the heat of the nostrils; penetrates and heals the inflamed, swollen membrane which lines the nose; stops nasty discharges and a feeling of cleansing, soothing relief comes immediately. Don't lay awake tonight struggling for breath, with head stuffed; nostrils closed, hawking and blowing. Catarrh or a cold, with its running nose, foul mucous droppings in the throat, and raw dryness is distressing but truly needless. Put your faith—just once—in "Ely's Cream Balm" and your cold or catarrh will surely disappear.

Daddy's Bedtime

The Pet Story — Bird of The Ward.

"WELL," said daddy, "I suppose you are ready for your story, and this evening I am going to tell you about a little boy I saw as I passed by a ward in a hospital I was visiting today."

Jack and Evelyn sat up and listened eagerly, as they loved to hear about other little boys and girls.

"This little boy," daddy continued, "was in the bed nearest the door I passed, and I noticed him particularly because on a table near his bed was a large cage containing a small yellow canary bird. I asked the nurse if pets were allowed in the ward and why this little boy especially wanted a bird. She told me that the little boy was an orphan and had been brought into the hospital one day, having been run over by a motorcycle. He was very much injured, and they expected he would die any minute. He was brave and scarcely moaned, but whenever the nurse would stop by his bed he would beg her to send for his bird, which was at the orphan's home. The nurse gently would explain that pets were not allowed in the hospital. One night his fever became very high, and in his rambling talk he begged for his canary. The doctor, who was a very kind hearted man, told the nurse to send for the bird, as the little boy would not live more than a few days, and if the bird would give him such great happiness they might be able to break a rule in his case."

"So the bird was sent for, and instead of dying the little boy began to grow better each day, and the bird's singing entertained and gave pleasure to the other patients in the ward. The bird was very tame, and when the little boy opened the cage door he would hop out and over the bed quilt and perch on the little boy's hand."

"The canary made friends with every one. He was not at all afraid of the grave doctors who came in every little while to see how the sick people were getting along. Especially was he friendly with the little boy's nurse, who fed him lumps of sugar."

"I stepped inside the room and asked the little boy how long he had had the bird. 'Oh,' he said, 'a lady who came to visit the orphan's home gave him to me when I was ill in bed with mumps! That was six years ago, and he has been such a friend to me ever since. His name is Mumps, too, as I thought his chest looked as fat as my cheeks, and the name has always clung to him. He adores flowers, and whenever a patient has any Mumps flies over and pulls off the petals and eats them.'"

"Oh," said Evelyn as daddy paused, "I wish I could have a canary!"

"Well, maybe I'll bring you one to-morrow," replied daddy.

"And I'll help you feed him," said Jack.

WHY WE GIVE THANKS TODAY

Thanksgiving is no more a day for impenitent eating than is Independence Day a day for impenitent noise. Safety and plenty were the blessings for which the pilgrim fathers gave thanks upon that day when the present holiday originated, and the sumptuous Thanksgiving table of today is emblematic of the bounty which then they piously celebrated.

Thanksgiving has come to have a broader significance, however. From time to time presidents proclaimed Thanksgiving days for the return of peace, and the adoption of the constitution was so honored by Washington, but since 1863 the day has become an annual holiday in which we return to the Great Giver our gratitude for His munificence.

Thus, today, we "eat, drink and are merry," with no thought that

"tomorrow we may die," but with a full appreciation of the gift of life and the joy of right living, and with a cheerful thankfulness to Him who not only is God of the harvest, but of life and of eternity.

HOW GREAT IS HE BECAUSE HE DRINKS

And now we learn that the administration has ignored the outbursts of Huerta because it has information that the Mexican president's pronouncements and proclamations are each and several the results of "jags."

We advise the chronicler of this event to keep away from Ishpeming, or Isch Ku Beeble, or wherever it was that a daring editor commented upon the drinks of the man who could not even get a second cup of coffee.

The analogy suggests that Huerta should bring a libel suit and start a new party, the "Bull Cactus" or something of that sort. And as to the serious aspect of the case, we presume that being drunk is not half as bad as being Mexican. There is an old saying, one recalls, "Hang a fool, a drunk man will get over it."

Every now and then some hardened reactionary, disdaining bichloride of mercury, takes the carbolic acid route.

Ex-Governor Sulzer now affords another example of the inadvisability of naming children after conspicuous public men.

Scientific Management Again

"Our boss is a crank on efficiency."

"What's he up to now?"

"Trying to teach the stenographer to chew gum in two movements less per minute to the lower jaw."

—Washington Herald.

An Austrian Munchausen

"Snakes hereabouts?" I chanced to inquire.

"Thousands," said the lawyer.

"Deadly?"

"They tell me, and I believe it," he replied, weighing his words, "that the death-adder and tiger-snake kill in half an hour. I'm told," he drawled on, in harmony with the droning weather, "that a dog won't last no more than twenty minutes. The death-adder, now, he's a slow, stupid beast, and won't move along. The tiger-snake comes at you, but the death-adder, he's a slow, stupid beast—lies still and bites when you tread on him. There's the black snake, too, and the brown snake—they're deadly; and a few others, like the tree snakes, and maybe some more. I reckon the carpet-snake is the only snake we got in this country that can't do too much damage."

"What say?" Oh! Well, I'll tell you, if you go hunting for snakes you're likely to be kept real busy; but if you mind your own business, and give the snakes a chance to mind their own business, and if you look out for them slow, stupid death-adders, you're likely to be let off. I heard tell of a kiddie being bit once. He put his hand in a rabbit hole."

"Did the child die?"

"Ah, well, no; he took an anecdote."

It had been a mild abrasion; for these snakes—the black snake and tiger-snake and death-adder in particular—are more virulently poisonous than the rattlesnake or cobra. Yet death from snake bite is by no means common in Australia.—Norman Duncan in Harper's Magazine.

BIG IRISH EXHIBIT

The Irish section of the Panama-Pacific International exposition has been allotted fifteen thousand square feet and it is intended to have a representative exhibition of Irish linens, woolsens, laces, silks, poplins, tapestries, and textiles generally. The section will have the fancy title of "Shamrock Isle," and the wonderful products of the Irish handicrafts will be elaborately displayed. A serious and earnest attempt to show what Ireland produces and makes for sale will be made. Specimens of the wonderful old bog-oak furniture will be shown.

IMITATE FAMOUS STONE

An imitation of the famous Travertine marble, from which the palaces of the Roman emperors were built, is being used to make the statuary and the covering of the exhibit palaces at the Panama-Pacific International exposition. The composition is a gypsum, rain proof and of unfading color; in tint it is a faint ivory yellow and is as smooth and hard as marble. The exposition sculptors and their assistants have formed a social club, called the "Travertine club," since they are the first sculptors to use the material for this purpose.

TO OPEN AT 9

The main exhibit palace at the Panama-Pacific International exposition in 1915 will be opened at 9 a. m. each day and closed at sunset, except the Palace of Fine Arts, which, at stated times, may be opened in the evenings.

Quips and Cranks and Wanton Wiles

When I was just a lad, My father Used to say: "Save all your money and you'll be A millionaire Some day."

I cannot blame my father for Advice he gave Me when I was a little boy, but, say— The times have changed Since then.

My dad bought juicy sirloin steak At fifteen cents A pound.

But nowadays I have to pay Just twenty-five For round.

Then eggs were 18 cents a doz. And butter Twenty cents.

My dad, though wise, had quite a lot To learn about Expense.

I haven't got my million yet, It's quite beyond My price;

Hi Costoliving's come along Since dad gave His advice.

Impersonal Attack

John Ruskin, the English art critic, once criticised in his fearless way a picture of a well known painter, who was very much grieved at the effect. Later, on hearing of the sorrow he had caused, he wrote to the artist that he regretted he could not speak more favorably of the picture, but hoped it would make no difference in their friendship. The artist, it is said, wrote in reply the following note: "Dear Ruskin: Next time I meet you I shall knock you down, but I hope it will make no difference in our friendship."

Practical Charity

"Well, my son," said a good natured father to an 8 year old son the other night, "what have you done today that may be set down as a good deed?"

"Gave a poor boy a penny," replied the hopeful.

"Ah, ah, that was charity, and charity is always right. He was an orphan boy, was he?"

"I didn't stop to ask," replied the son. "I gave him the money for licking a boy who upset my school bag."

Went Too Far

Quizzer—"What's the matter, old man? You look worried?"

Sizzer—"I have cause to. I engaged a man to trace my pedigree."

Quizzer—"Well, what's the trouble? Hasn't he been successful?"

Sizzer—"Successful! I should say he has! I'm paying him hush-money."

—Vale Record.

Explanation Needed

The parents of a certain young girl of Detroit, being of French birth, have never been able to accustom themselves to the American ideas touching the liberty of girls in the matter of attentions from the other sex. The girl herself, however, having been born in this country, takes the same view of the matter held by the average American girl.

One afternoon, upon her return after an absence of an hour or so, the girl was met by this question from her mother:

"Where have you been, my dear?"

"Walking in the park, mother."

"And with whom?"

"No one."

"No one?"

"No one."

"In that case," continued the mother, relentlessly, "you will please be so kind as to explain why you have returned with a walking stick instead of an umbrella?"—Lippincott's.

Queer Rowing Costumes.

English rowing men a century ago wore costumes far different from what they wear now. In 1805 it was the correct thing for them to wear a green leather catskin cap with a jacket and trousers of nankeen. In the first university race at Henley in 1829 Oxford wore blue checks, while Cambridge was in white with pink waistcoats. Broad brimmed heavy straw hats came in a little later.

Like New Store Fronts.

Making over store fronts is an industry which has found so many patrons in New York that a number of firms have found it profitable to set aside all other forms of building and devote themselves wholly to helping New York merchants improve the appearance of their establishments by putting a new face on the matter. All classes of merchants, from the small dealer in the suburb to the great dry goods firms, indulge in the luxury of a new kind of front to their business homes every once in so often.

RAILROADS IN FAIR

There will be several kinds of inter-terminal transportation for carrying visitors to any part of the grounds of the Panama-Pacific International exposition. In addition to motor buses, which will take passengers to any point for ten cents, there will be a double track miniature railroad, which will give a four-mile ride for ten cents; electric jitneys, push chairs and bicycle chairs, the charges for which will be moderate.

ROADS TO BE DECORATIVE

The road system of the Panama-Pacific International exposition will form a part of an artistic color scheme. A material that will be widely used will be the "red rock" indigenous to California, the rich tint of which will lessen the glare and add to the warmth and color of the grounds.

MARVEL

is a household word and used in thousands of homes in this great country.

YOU MAY PAY MORE

BUT YOU CANNOT GET BETTER FLOUR.

LISTMAN MILL CO.

LA CROSSE, WISCONSIN

BLINDNESS

According to excellent authority, there are 100,000 cases of blindness in the United States. Estimating that Wisconsin has a proportionate share of this number, as it no doubt has, there are 2,500 blind in this state.

A new York commission which investigated one thousand cases affirmed that one-third of them were preventable. Undoubtedly a similar investigation in Wisconsin would arrive at the same conclusion.

One of the great causes of blindness is infection of the baby's eyes during birth. Leading oculists state that one-fourth of all blindness is due to this infection. Such blindness is absolutely preventable. Indeed, if the laws of the state are complied with, all cases of this nature in Wisconsin will henceforth be prevented.

The preventive measures are exceedingly simple, merely requiring the use of harmless eye drops immediately after the birth of the infant. To prevent any oversight which might be responsible for a loss of eyesight, parents should positively know that this precaution has been taken by the attendant.

The existence of 2,500 blind citizens constitutes a drag anchor upon public and family resources and prosperity. Public relief is almost inevitable. Modern competition is such that it is a healthy man's job to keep ahead of his creditors. Few handicapped individuals can be expected to do so.

Blindness is incurable. The only hope is in prevention. To prevent the mass of individual cases, each individual case, each individual case must be prevented.

Question: My son, a rural mail carrier, suffers from nervous and imaginary disorders. Do you think a change of occupation would help him?

Answer: Yes, provided it be work which will more fully occupy his mind and stop the tendency to gaze inward.

RAILROADS IN FAIR

There will be several kinds of inter-terminal transportation for carrying visitors to any part of the grounds of the Panama-Pacific International exposition. In addition to motor buses, which will take passengers to any point for ten cents, there will be a double track miniature railroad, which will give a four-mile ride for ten cents; electric jitneys, push chairs and bicycle chairs, the charges for which will be moderate.

THREE CHANCES FOR WOMAN TO ESCAPE

See Excellent Opportunity to Procure a New Trial for Mrs. Wakefield

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 27.—The investigation into the case of Mrs. Bessie Wakefield, now under sentence of death, on a charge of having been implicated in the murder of her husband by James Plew, had reached such a stage today that the women of Connecticut, working in the young woman's behalf, saw three chances of saving Mrs. Wakefield, instead of the one toward which their efforts have been directed.

It was first believed that the "woman who never had a chance" might through her ignorance and lack of self will, have been led to have a part in the planning of the murder by Plew. There is now the greatest doubt, however, as to whether she had any knowledge of Plew's intentions the night of the killing. Mrs. Wakefield has declared in an interview that it was not until after the murder that Plew took her into his confidence.

Instead of the single appeal to the board of pardons for mercy, the women of the state now see their three chances of saving Mrs. Wakefield—a new trial, the board of pardons and in executive clemency.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 27.—Voicing the protest of 3,000 women in this city, a resolution condemning the conviction of Mrs. Bessie Wakefield, adopted by the fourth district of the Minnesota Women's clubs is today on its way to New Haven, Conn., where "the woman who never had a chance" is behind prison bars. This resolution will be followed by similar action by women's clubs throughout the state.

Grape-Nuts a Perfectly Balanced Food

No chemist's analysis of Grape-Nuts can begin to show the real value as shown by personal experience.

It is a food that is perfectly balanced, supplies the needed elements for both brain and body in all stages of life from the infant, through the strenuous times of active middle life, and is a comfort and support in old age.

"For two years I have used Grape-Nuts with milk and a little cream, for breakfast. I am comfortably hungry for my dinner at noon."

"I use little meat, plenty of vegetables and fruit, in season, for the noon meal, and if tired at tea time, take Grape-Nuts alone and feel perfectly nourished."

"Nerve and brain power and memory are much improved since using Grape-Nuts. I am over sixty and weigh 155 lbs. My son and husband seeing how I had improved are now using Grape-Nuts."

"My son, who is a traveling man, eats nothing for breakfast but Grape-Nuts and a glass of milk. An aunt, over 70, seems fully nourished on Grape-Nuts and cream." "There's a Reason."

This pretty suit is made of white broadcloth, and trimmed with black velvet buttons. Dart-like tucks start beneath armpits at the front and end at the underarm. Arrowheads trim the back seams at the waist line. The skirt is crossed over at the front, over a small inset at the foot.

TRAVELERS TO MEET AT SPARTA, WIS.

SPARTA, Wis., Nov. 27.—The members of the United Commercial Travelers will have a meeting in the city December 6. There will be the members of La Crosse, Bangor, Reedsburg, Tomah and Milwaukee lodges in attendance. A special program has been prepared for the occasion and there will also be a banquet. The meeting will be held at the Odd Fellows hall. Mr. J. W. Calaway of La Crosse, the district deputy, will have some special instruction for all the members.

Odd Fellows Sociable
The Odd Fellows every year give a series of sociables to which the families and the sweethearts of the members are invited. The first of this year's sociables will be held Friday evening at the Odd Fellows hall. All the Odd Fellows and the Rebeccas and their families are invited. There will be refreshments, after which a program will be given.

Hotel Changes Proprietors
Mr. Ben Cole, who ran the Sparta house some time ago, but went to the Milwaukee depot to run the Park Hotel, will again take charge of the Sparta hotel. D. E. Wells, the owner and present proprietor of the Sparta hotel, has leased the building to Mr. Cole for an indefinite time. Mr. Cole will also run the Park Hotel, but his son will have charge of it while he will have charge of the Sparta hotel. Mr. Cole will take possession December 1.

Local and Personal
Mr. Einar Peterson, who is in the employ of the Paulsen Shoe company, is spending Thanksgiving at his home at Milladore, Wis.
Miss Winnifred Rooker of this city, who is teaching at Madison, is here for Thanksgiving.
Miss Ethel Jones, who is attending school at Beloit, is spending Thanksgiving at her home in the city.

Because of the warm weather the ice supply has failed and the local ice dealer had to get a car load from Westby to fill the Thanksgiving demand. This Thanksgiving weather is reported as the warmest that this part of the country has seen for years.

HONDURAN BUILDING UP

The Republic of Honduras is the first of the foreign nations to erect its building at the Panama-Pacific International exposition at San Francisco. Thus far twenty-nine foreign powers have announced to the department of state their intention to participate in the exposition. The Honduras pavilion is now under roof and the stucco covering is nearly all in place.

OUTLINE PROGRAM TO RUSH MEASURE

Senate Democrats Decide to Hold Sessions from 10 A. M. to 11 P. M. Without Recess

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—A drastic program to hasten currency legislation was adopted today by the senate democratic conference. Immediate sessions, to last from 10 a. m. to 11 p. m. without any holiday recess, were decided upon. Three currency bills will be taken up in caucus and the democratic senators pledged to support a caucus draft.

It is understood that the orders for the hasty action came from the White house.

Chairman Owen, of the banking committee, said he believed the bill might pass before Christmas and if so, a week's recess may be taken. Otherwise sessions would be held every day except Christmas and New Year's.

The program may prevent President Wilson from taking his prospective three weeks' vacation in the south.

The conference was resumed this afternoon after the regular session of the senate today and the three bills taken up in detail. The caucus will continue tonight and most of Thanksgiving day and until a final democratic approval in all the main features is completed. Republican senators today had not decided whether they will accept the democratic caucus plan.

KILLS HER BABY IN INSANE FIT

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Nov. 27.—After murdering her four months old unnamed baby girl by slashing its throat with a butcher knife while in a fit of insanity, Mrs. Jacob Pavlacs, 488 Third street, was prevented from killing the eight months old daughter of her sister, Mrs. Emma Krishan, 159 Sherman street, who she was visiting, by the efforts of Mrs. Krishan, at 4:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Pavlacs, it is believed, would have killed her sister's child and her own other three had she not been interrupted while bending over the sister's child with an upraised butcher knife. When her sister tried to stop her, she attempted to take her own life.

Mrs. Pavlacs has been suffering from spells of melancholia for several months.

MARSHFIELD MAN RECALLED AS MAYOR

MARSHFIELD, Wis., Nov. 27.—Albert G. Felker, prominent manufacturer, was elected mayor over Robert Connor, the present incumbent, at the recall election held here. Felker received 600 out of 1,184 votes.

The vote was the largest in recent history. A bitter campaign has been waged for four weeks. Felker will be confirmed as mayor Tuesday night.

UNLOAD AT DOOR

Exhibitors at the Panama-Pacific International exposition may have their exhibits delivered right on the grounds from car or ship. The exposition has its own freight ferry slip, which may be entered by car floats bearing the cars with exhibits. The cars may then be taken to the desired building over the rails of the exposition's standard gauge railway system. The exposition has also its own harbor and docks, where vessels from all parts of the world may moor and discharge cargoes. No transshipment will be necessary from time of first loading on car or ship.

MORTGAGE BODY ACT IS IMPORTANT BILL

Law Was Designed to Make Wisconsin Land a More Fluid Security

FIFTEEN OR MORE JOIN FORCES

Funds of Association Are Loaned on First Mortgages and Bonds Issued

From the point of view of the farmers and settlers in Wisconsin who need more ready money on more appropriate terms, the land mortgage association act passed by the last legislature is one of the most important bits of legislation written into the statute books. While congress and the legislatures of other states were debating the problem of providing appropriate credit facilities for the farmer and settler and stopped there, Wisconsin got busy and actually passed the necessary law.

More Fluid Security

Generally speaking, the purpose of this law, which became chapter 666 of the 1913 session, is to make land in Wisconsin a more fluid security. This act proposes to accomplish by bond issues, the bonds to be secured by first mortgage on real estate. These bonds will be negotiable and can be passed from hand to hand as readily as actual money.

The associations to be formed under this act will be similar to the joint stock mortgage banks of Germany, of which there were thirty-seven, with outstanding loans aggregating two and one-quarter billion dollars in 1911.

To operate under the Wisconsin act fifteen or more persons must incorporate with a capital stock of not less than ten thousand dollars. The funds of the association are loaned on first mortgage securities and the association may deposit the securities with the state treasurer and then issue negotiable bonds equal to the amount to the securities deposited.

Many Safeguards

The act makes every provision for safeguarding the purchasers of these bonds. The association formed under the act and their operation are completely under the control and supervision of the state commissioner of banking. They are to be examined by him periodically and generally are subject to as close or even closer supervision and scrutiny than are state banks. The law provides that at no time shall the amount of bonds issued exceed the amount of mortgages on deposit with the state treasurer.

Loans are granted only after careful investigation of a detailed application and after inspection of the premises offered as security. No loan shall exceed in amount sixty-five per cent of the value of the land if improved, or forty per cent, if unimproved, and no loan may be granted unless it is for such a purpose as will benefit the borrower.

Elaborate Management

An elaborate system of management, including checks and verifications is required by the act. The state board of public affairs is working with the commissioner of banking on a constitution and by-laws for the business regulation of these associations. With a comprehensive law supplemented by a thoroughly worked out by-laws and with proper administration, highly satisfactory results may be anticipated.

When You Sneeze.

The custom of saying "God bless you" to a person when he sneezes originated among the ancients, who, fearing danger from it, after sneezing made a short prayer to the gods, as "Jupiter, help me." The custom is mentioned by Homer, the Jewish rabbis and others. Polydore Vergil says it took its rise at the time of the plague in 558, when the infected fell dead, sneezing, though apparently in good health.

Dark Town.

Of 10,000 townships in France having more than 1,000 inhabitants, about 6,000 are without any public lighting. Of the remainder, there are 1,249 lighted by gas, 2,763 lighted by electricity and 172 by acetylene.

The Big Item.

"Does it take much money to send a boy to college?" asked the Boob. "No," replied the Cheerful Idiot. "It's keeping him there that takes the coin."

Such letters as this are proof of many things. It should mean much to you to know that we have thousands of such letters on file in our office. What do these letters prove?

First, that these students attended the W. B. U.
Second, that they found it good and stayed to complete their work.

Third, they were made competent to hold good positions.
Fourth, they secured good positions.

Fifth, they credit the W. B. U. with their success and are today staunch friends of the school and its work.

Dear Mr. Toland: Inverness, Montana, Nov. 21, 1913.

It has been some time since you heard from me, but nevertheless I am still alive and working hard every day.

Am now agent here for the Great Northern Railway, but expect to be transferred to Surry, N. D., soon. I will get a little better pay. At present am making $120 per month, but the job at Surry pays about $135, with better equipment all around than here.

Well, Mr. Toland, how is the school this year? Prosperous as ever, I presume. Expect to take another trip back there after New Year, so will try and see you.

Give my regards to all the old friends, and if you ever get time, drop me a few lines.

Shorthand Used by Romans.

The art of shorthand was practiced from antiquity. It was improved by the poet Ennius, by Tyro, Cicero's freeman, and Seneca. The "Ars Scribendi Characteris," written about 1412,
is the oldest system extant. Dr. Timothy Bright's "Characterie, or the Art of Short, Swift and Secret Writing," published in 1588, is the first English work on shorthand.

IF BACK HURTS BEGIN ON SALTS

Flush your Kidneys occasionally if you eat meat regularly

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which excites the kidneys, they become overworked from the strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the waste and poisons from the blood, then we get sick.
Nearly all rheumatism, headaches,
liver trouble, nervousness, dizziness,
sleeplessness and urinary disorders
come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scald-ing, stop eating meat and get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and in a few days your kidneys will activate. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate the kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.
Agent, Chas. A. Beyschlag, Druggist, 503 Main street.

STATUE FOR HERO OF THE REVOLUTION

Sculptor's model for Barry statue.

After five years of discussion over models for a monument to Commodore John Barry of Revolutionary fame the National Arts' commission has accepted designs for the monument planned by John J. Boyle, sculptor, of New York. The statue will be ten feet high and will rest on a pedestal 16 1/2 feet high. Thus the entire monument will rise nearly 27 feet above a plateau 65 feet wide.

DESPERATE HOPE OF VICTORY TODAY

La Crosse's Rivalry of Sparta May Make Them Outdo Themselves and Beat
Title Claimants

Full of enthusiasm and hoping for a victory, although it must be admitted that there was little but hope on which to found the enthusiasm, two hundred La Crosse high school students gathered at Sparta this afternoon for the annual game with the claimants for the state title.

It had been intended for the rooters to accompany the team to Sparta on a special train, but that proposition fell through when it was found that many of those going down on the special intended to stay for the dance in the evening, and would not return with the train.

La Crosse's chance for a victory in the game today are admittedly slim, but those who have been watching practices for the last week or two declare they will not be surprised in Coach Horne's men show a big reversal of the mediocre form which has marked their playing all season.
La Crosse and Sparta are bitter rivals, Sparta is cocky and confident of overwhelming the locals. And the La Crosse squad would like nothing better than a chance to reduce the Sparta pride to reasonable bounds.

La Crosse goes into this last game of the season with a desperation that looks forward to no consequences.
There are no more games to save themselves for, and their hope of the title is gone. "Beat Sparta and make the season a success" is the slogan, and if it can be done La Crosse is out to do it.

So watch the score. It may be a surprise.

GOOD AVIATION FIELD

Situated on the shore of the bay of San Francisco, with the Pacific ocean but a short distance off and visible from the grounds, the aviation field of the Panama-Pacific exposition will offer a rare opportunity for the exercise of all kinds of air craft under all conditions.

ATHLETES AT EXPO
International athletic events of wide scope are being prepared for the Panama-Pacific exposition. Some of the world's leading athletes are expected to participate and many world's records will be attacked.

Your umbrella will last longer if you don't roll it or lend it.

Watch Your Pimples Go Away

Then Feel the Ecstasy of Delight
When Your Complexion is Made Perfect by Stuart's Calcium Wafers.

Don't worry about your pimples.
Stop that heart ache and regret. Just make up your mind that you are going to use Stuart's Calcium Wafers and make pimples vanish.

"I Don't Look Like I Did Since I Used Stuart's Calcium Wafers."

The pores of the skin are little mouths. Each has a sort of valve that opens into tiny canals connecting with the blood. These mouth-like pores become closed. When these canals fill up, the valve refuses to work and pimples, blotches, rash, tetter, liver spots, etc., appear.

Stuart's Calcium Wafers keep the pores open and the canals then carry off the waste matter the blood empties into them.

Don't use cosmetics. They will not hide pimples long, and then they clog the skin. You ought to know that the skin breathes in air almost like the lungs. The pores throw off impurities every minute of the day.
To plaster the skin with paste, etc.,
is to actually prevent nature doing her work.

Stuart's Calcium Wafers will in a very short time, cleanse the blood, open the pores and remove all blemishes so that your skin will become of a peach and cream kind so much desired.

Stuart's Calcium Wafer can be carried in purse or pocket. They are very pleasant to the taste and may be purchased anywhere at 50 cents a box.

Look at your pimples and unsightly skin in the right way as a disease of the blood and pores and use Stuart's Calcium Wafers to give you the complexion you want.

WOULD GET BACK M'ELDOWNEY LOSS

Attempt Being Made to Recover $15,000 of Which West Salem Widow
Was Defrauded

Arguments for a new trial in the cases of James Ryan and "Barney"
Bertsche, convicted of swindling Mrs.
Hope McDowd out of $15,000, will be made in Chicago December 6.
Ryan and Bertsche were sentenced to indeterminate sentences of from one to twenty years.

An attempt is under way on the part of attorneys for Mrs. McDowd to recover the sum of which was swindled through a clairvoyant game operated by Ryan under the protection of Bertsche, head of the so-called
"seers' trust" in Chicago.

It is understood that the attitude of the court, in case Ryan and Bertsche settle with Mrs. McDowd, will be lenient. It is said the judge may let the two men off with one year. Action in the case, however, has been deferred until after the new trial hearing.

CONVICTS SEE MOVIES

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Nov. 27.
—Twenty-five hundred convicts in the state penitentiary were today thankful that Warden McClung had installed a moving picture machine and gave many of them their first chance to see the movies.

Easiest Way.

An eminent German professor had the misfortune to die while he was away on his holidays. When the time came to put up a tablet to his memory in the little university town where his life's work had lain, this was the line which the mortuary artist carved upon it: "He died during his absence."—New York Evening Post.

Give the Credit Now.

We ought daily or weekly to dedicate a little time to the reckoning up of the virtues of our belonging—wife, children, friends—contemplating them then in a beautiful collection. And we should do so now, that we may not pardon and love in vain and too late,
after the beloved one has been taken away from us to a better world.—Jean Paul Richter.

MOONSHINER IS HELD IN STATE

First Illicit Still in Wisconsin in 20 Years Is Raided in Oneida County

MADISON, Wis., Nov. 27. — The first arrest for moonshining in Wisconsin in twenty years is reported by the internal revenue's office here.
The officers raided the home of John Machnie, about four miles from Clear lake, Oneida county, discovering and destroying about fifty gallons of whiskey and confiscating the still.
The penalty is from $500 to $5,000.
Machnie has been sent to Superior for a hearing before the federal court. It is said he had his apparatus hidden under the floor of the barn.

NETS MAY CAUSE OLD MAN'S DEATH

MANITOWOC, Wis., Nov. 27. — Pulled under a moving freight car when fish nets which he was carrying became entangled, John Bob-beck had one foot cut off and the other badly crushed. His advanced age, 75, may handicap his recovery.

BIG YACHT HARBOR

The yacht harbor on the waterfront of the Panama-Pacific International exposition is about five acres in area and has such ample and convenient docking facilities that coastwise steamers and other craft, sometimes six or seven at a time, use it daily, discharging building material.

CUT GLASS PRISMS

The many colored prisms that will be used in the novel and striking scheme of night illumination of the Panama-Pacific palaces are of fine cut glass, made in Austria by a process not followed elsewhere. The prisms, known as jewels, are patiently tooled by hand in the homes of the artisans.

FOILS NEGRO BANDIT

CHICAGO, Nov. 27. — As a climax to a series of more than thirty hold-ups and burglaries during the night,
a negro early today attempted to rob the Twelfth street station of the elevated railway, just outside the downtown Loop district. E. T. Donovan, agent, ducked beneath the counter when ordered to hold up his hands and touched off a police alarm. The negro fled.

Proper Sense of Humor.

The sense of humor is like individuality; it is likely to be disagreeable to others if made too prominent. It is a dangerous gift, so dangerous that the person who lacks it may perhaps be congratulated. They do not know what they miss, but they are likely to be the solid, sensible citizens, the men of means, and the directors of public affairs.

Couldn't Fool Him.

The farmer had bought a pair of shoes in the city shop. "Now, can't I sell you a pair of shoe trees?" suggested the clerk. "Don't get fresh with me, sonny!" replied the farmer, bristling up. "I don't believe shoes kin be raised on trees any morn' I believe rubbers grow on rubber trees or oysters on oyster plants, b'gosh!"

given for the winter months. Students who wish will be admitted free on trial. Do you know that over two-thirds of the employed force of stenographers and bookkeepers in La Crosse are graduates of the Keefe Business College? Do you know that no graduate of the Keefe Business College ever has to wait for a position? Within the past few weeks we have had calls for bookkeepers and stenographers from the following firms in this city: Hans Motor Co., one young woman; Stamping & Tool Co., one young woman; Lamb Fruit House, one young man; C. B. & Q. R. R., four young men; Tillman Bros., one young man; J. L. Pettigill Abstract Office, one young woman; Onalaska Agricultural School, one young woman; Kroner Hardware Co., four young men or women. As many out of town firms have applied for help during the same period and had to be refused. Our supply is all out at present. Would you think with such evidence that the field for the product of our business college is overcrowded? Our graduates stand at the head and are always first choice. Our school is the best. Don't be deceived. Investigate.

UNCLE SAM INCREASES ARMY STRENGTH ON MEXICAN BORDER LINE

U. S. field artillery on border line (top) and members of the U. S. signal corps with field wireless apparatus.

The war department has just ordered another infantry regiment to Fort Bliss, near El Paso, Texas, to defend El Paso from possible attack from south of the border line. This increase in Uncle Sam's armed force in Texas was urged by the Texas delegation in congress, who were alarmed by the strength of the rebel army near Juarez.

RISK TURKEY TO MEET IN CAUCAS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—Discussion of such topics as elastic currency, credit mobilization, gold reserves and regional reserve banks was how senate democrats enjoyed Thanksgiving day "holiday" today. They risked loss of belated turkey dinners in all-day caucus on currency legislation. Leaders planned to continue the confab tonight and will meet day and night all week in an effort to complete a "harmony" democratic caucus draft before the regular session of congress convenes Monday.

N. H. BROPHY VIROQUAN DIES

Dr. N. H. Brophy, age 61, one of the best known farmers of Viroqua, died at 9:30 last night at a local hospital. Death resulted after several weeks of suffering from a stroke of apoplexy.

Born in Kilkenny County, Ireland, Dr. Brophy came to this country with his parents at the age of four years. He was married in 1877 to Anna Finnegan and resided in Minnesota until 1896, when he and his family moved to Wisconsin. He was a graduate veterinary.

Surviving him are his wife, five daughters and two sons. They are: Mrs. Ella Gardner, Liberty, Wis.; Mrs. Kitty Anderson, Dubuque, Ia.; Margaret, Mary and Anna Brophy, and Edward and Nicholas. Four sisters, two brothers and four grandchildren, also survive.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon from the residence and later at the Catholic church at Rising Sun, Wis. Interment will be made there.

Convict's Pet Mouse.
On completion of a three years' sentence, a convict has left Peterhead penitentiary, Aberdeenshire, Scotland, accompanied by the companion of his imprisonment, a brown mouse. He caused it while working in the quarries shortly after his arrival at Peterhead. The mouse shared its captor's meals, and in 12 months had learned a variety of tricks, such as eating out of the convict's hand and sitting up at the word of command.

Method in Their Living.

"Don't you think, dear," began Comfy, "that our next door neighbors, the Scrubbs, are putting on a great deal too much style, considering the fact that they never know from day to day where the next meal is coming from?" "Well," replied Mrs. Comfy, "you see, the more style they put on the more likely they are to be invited out to dinner."

RESOLUTIONS ON DEATH OF FIGGIE

The Wendell-Philips Debating society, of which Milton Figgie, who died yesterday at his home, 1427 Kane street, was a member, have offered the following resolution:

"Whereas, it has pleased our Heavenly Father to take from our midst an excellent comrade;

"Whereas, Milton Figgie was an honorary member in good standing, faithful and loyal to his friends;

"Whereas, his parents have lost a devoted and loving son, the community a promising citizen, the Wendell-Philips Debating society an active member, striving at all times to promote the interests of the society;

"We do hereby resolve, that copies of these resolutions be sent to the bereaved family, to the press of the city, and a copy be spread over the books of this society. (Signed) "Wendell-Philips Debating Society."

Funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon from the Second German Methodist church. Rev. B. C. Brandenburg will officiate. Interment will take place at Oak Grove cemetery.

CANADIANS MAY MEET U. S. TARIFF

WINNIPEG, Man., Nov. 27.—What is believed to be the forerunner of a stampede among government supporters in the Canadian West to meet the United States tariff on food products, was in evidence today following an address delivered by Hon. R. Bennett, members of the Canadian parliament from Calgary, Alta., and leading conservative supporter of the Borden government. Bennett declared that if it was a fact that free wheat would add half a cent a bushel to the price received by Canadian farmers, he would favor the elimination of the duty.

LYNCH ALLEGED SLAYER

TUNICA, Miss., Nov. 27.—Early Thanksgiving churchgoers today discovered the body of James Higgins dangling from a tree near the church. He had been taken from officers by a mob and lynched. He was accused of a double murder.

EAGLES INITIATE CLASS

WILL HARRIS BACK WITH BIG NEW ACT

"Dolly's Dolls," a tinkling tale of a toy shop presented by Will J. Harris, features the five act vaudeville bill opening at the Majestic tonight for the last half of the week.

Mr. Harris, who is the owner of several productions now playing in different parts of the country, is in the city supervising the staging of his production at the Majestic. He is the writer of some of the most famous of the popular songs that have been written within the past few years. Among the songs he has written are: "Let's Make Love While the Moon Shines," "Games of Our Childhood Days" and "Stop That Bearcat, Sady."

In the act Mr. Harris is presenting, he has striven to eliminate anything from it that is offensive. It was written around the scene of childhood games. The scenery is beautiful.

Mr. Harris is well known here, having played at local houses in two previous engagements.

church agreed to consolidate their Thanksgiving day services, and will hold a service at the Presbyterian church in the morning at 9:15. Both pastors, Rev. D. C. Jones of the Presbyterian and Rev. Stanley P. Oadams made addresses.

Rev. John Hellestvedt, supply pastor of the West Avenue Norwegian Lutheran church, officiated at the Thanksgiving services held in the church this morning at 10:30. Special music was given.

A special service was held this morning at 10 o'clock at the First German Methodist church, at which Rev. John H. Klaus, pastor of the church officiated.

North Side Services
Thanksgiving services were also held in north side churches. Special services were held Wednesday evening at 7:45 at the Caledonia Street Methodist church, which were joined by the congregations of the several north side churches. Rev. H. B. Leonard, pastor of the Tabernacle Baptist church, made the address of the evening.

All Catholic churches of the city held special services this morning. High mass was said in many cases at 10 o'clock. Although the church does not hold Thanksgiving day as a holy day, special services are always held. The most impressive of those today were the services at the Cathedral held at 8 o'clock. Rev. Father G. Sluyter officiated.

Wagon With Sails.
In 1622 one of the wonders to be seen at The Hague was a wagon or a ship or a combination of both. A traveler of that time wrote: "This engine hath wheels and sails, will hold above twenty people and goes with the wind, being drawn or moved by nothing else, and will run, the wind being good, above fifteen miles an hour upon the even hard sands."

Origin of "Thugs."
A real thug was a member of an organized society of fanatical murderers in India, who considered their victims to be sacrifices to their gods. Their method was by strangulation. The English tried to suppress them about 1810, but did not succeed till about 1830.

Luminous Fire Boxes.
To enable New Yorkers to find fire alarm boxes at night, the superintendent of the fire alarm department is painting them with luminous paint. It is of white zinc, and in some parts of the city, where there is a little light, one of these boxes can be distinguished for a long distance.

What She Meant.
"My second husband is no more like my first one was than day is like night." "But remember that you should never speak ill of the dead." "Oh, I had no intention of doing that. On the contrary."—Houson Post.

Helpful.
Do you know that equal parts of turpentine and ammonia will remove paint from clothing no matter how hard it may be? Saturate the paint two or three times and wash the spot with warm water and soap.

Industrious Firemen.
Firemen in Amsterdam have little idle time. Many of them are skilled workmen. Every station has its own workshop, where all repairs are made, and where automobiles are built, except as to the chassis. Amsterdam was one of the first cities to put motor apparatus into use in the fire department.

Cheap, Considering.
"You say that this small public building cost $160,000! Isn't that exorbitant?" "No, no. If you knew the gang that placed the contract you'd think it was mighty cheap."

LA CROSSE DRUGGIST MAKES A STATEMENT

We always advise people who have stomach or bowel trouble to see a doctor. But to those who do not wish to do this we will say: try the mixture of simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., known as Adler-I-ka. This simple new remedy is so powerful that JUST ONE DOSE relieves sour stomach, gas on the stomach and constipation INSTANTLY. People who try Adler-I-ka are surprised at its QUICK action. ### WILL GRAFT ON NOSE AND MOUTH

BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 27.—Ross Allen of Whitby, Can., is in St. Joseph's hospital ready to have a new nose and mouth grafted upon him. Surgeons there are hopeful.

The whole front of Allen's face, including nose and lips, was shorn away in a sawmill accident five years ago.

The first step will be to build up the two lips. The flesh of his arm will be cut just the shape of the lower lip. One side will remain attached to the arm. Then the flesh around the mouth will be cut away till fresh tissue is exposed. The arm will then be bound across the patient's mouth and the new lip trimmed up.

Practically the same slow, careful operation will be gone through with in building up the upper lip. When that is healed on perfectly, Allen will be given a rest until he feels strong enough for the final operation of the series—putting on the new nose. To do this, the man's chest will be laid open and a piece of fresh cartilage cut away from one of his ribs where it joins the breastbone.

CARDINAL GIBBONS ISSUES MESSAGE

BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 27.—Cardinal Gibbons has issued the following Thanksgiving message:

"Of all the nations of the earth that are called upon to return thanks to the giver of all good gifts, the United States is among the most conspicuous. We enjoy material prosperity in a very marked degree. We are at peace with all the nations of the earth and we have peace within our own borders.

"It is sincerely hoped that our complications with Mexico will, in the long run, be adjusted, not with the sword, but by the pen and voice, which are mightier than the sword."

"JAMES CARDINAL GIBBONS."

THANKSGIVING IS KEPT IN PRISON

STILLWATER, Minn., Nov. 27.—That the prisoners in the state penitentiary might have something to make this Thanksgiving day more cheerful and feel that they, too, have some small amount of thanks to offer, Warden Wolfert today assembled every inmate of the institution in the big prison auditorium where a play was staged by a number of the prisoners who have histrionic ability. Thousands of pounds of turkey were served at the big noon-day dinner and many privileges were granted the men for freer communication than is generally allowed.

STATE TO REST IN HANISH TRIAL

CHICAGO, Nov. 27.—After reading 400 pages of Ottoman Zar-Adusht Hanish's book, "Inner Studies," containing bits of advice as varied as "Take sun baths in the nude if you would be healthy," and "Eat garlic if you would be a centenarian," the government expected to rest its case today against the leader of the Mazdaznan cult of sun worshippers, charged with sending improper literature by express.

BREAK SPEED RECORD

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Nov. 27.—Construction upon the Panama-Pacific International exposition, to open in San Francisco in 1915, has broken all records in rapid exposition building. The main exhibit section is now under way and millions of feet of lumber have been raised into place. An army of workmen is employed at the grounds. According to a recent statement of Director of Works Harris D. H. Connick, the exposition is eleven per cent ahead of the definite schedule adopted more than one year ago. All the exposition palaces will be completed months before the opening of the exposition on February 6, 1915.

HOMINY MILL BURNS

DECATUR, Ill., Nov. 27.—The Decatur mill of the American Hominy company burned early today with a loss of $100,000. The fire started in the dryer room on the top floor and burned downward. The mill is said to have ground more corn than any other mill of its size in the world.

CAMPAIGN REDUCES EGGS

CHICAGO, Nov. 27.—Egg prices have dropped several cents in suburban sections of Chicago, Mrs. Caroline Bley announced today, since the Chicago Clean Food club, of which she is president, started its campaign to have Chicago women refuse to buy eggs until the price is reduced to 32 cents a dozen.

Good Reason for It.

A gentleman who was raising bees and was the owner of several hives was telling some children they must not bother them at all. One little girl said, "Brother picked up one this morning, but he let right go again."

British Columbia's Timber.
With the exception of Siberia, Brazil and the northwestern United States, British Columbia's timber wealth is reported to be unparalleled in any other country.

It is easier for the average woman to muster up courage to face a mouse than openly to defy fashion.

WALTER LEADS ALL IN FANNING BATTERS

Walter Johnson of the Washington club, who won the Chalmers car last season for being the most valuable player in the American league, has, since he entered last company, claimed 1,458 strikeout victims. No other major league hurler has, in the seven consecutive seasons from 1907 to 1913, amassed this total.

the furs and received in turn provisions, clothing, powder and utensils and came back up river in the skiff they had taken along on the raft. A second market was Cassville, Wis., just opposite the mouth of the Turkey river. Here the settlers sometimes took their walnut logs and furs, and traded them for goods brought up by the steamers from St. Louis.

In the forties and fifties, many white men came into the Turkey river country, several mills were built on its banks and the wild turkey with other game became rapidly scarcer. By the sixties they had almost disappeared. Finally none was left but two wary old gobblers who defied hunters for many months before they were at last brought down with the rifle. The two were worthy representatives of the last of their race as one weighed 21 pounds and the other 20.

REFUSES PROCLAMATION

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Nov. 27.—"There are too many people with nothing to be thankful for," was the reason assigned here today by Mayor William Riddle for his failure to issue any Thanksgiving proclamation. Riddle, who is wealthy, recently announced his family would buy no eggs as a personal wallop at the high cost of living.

AGAINST PARTY WOMEN

CHICAGO, Nov. 27.—Miss Jane Addams, in a debate at the progressive club with Raymond Robbins, state chairman of the progressive party, urged women voters in Illinois to adopt a non-partisan attitude at the city election next spring. Robbins urged the support of women voters for the progressive ticket.

MEAL RATES REASONABLE

Rates for meals served on the grounds of the Panama-Pacific International exposition in San Francisco will be reasonable. Each concessionaire will be under contract with the exposition to provide everything on bills of fare at agreed prices. The restaurants and cafes on the grounds will cater to all tastes, and will range from those with simple, inexpensive menus to those with dishes on a par with the best in the world's largest cities, but at fair prices. Several restaurants will provide dinners at fifty cents. Others will serve meals a la carte and their patrons may pay as much or as little as they like.

MOTOR BOATS TO SHOW

One of the most attractive features of the display in the department of transportation at the Panama-Pacific exposition in San Francisco in 1915 will be the motor boat exhibits. This will be in the marine section and will include many of the latest types of motor boats and their engines and equipment. While some of these will be displayed in the Palace of Transportation, others will be seen afloat in the yacht harbor or in the bay of San Francisco itself.

GOVERNOR FOR INTERVENTION

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 27.—Governor J. H. Morehead, speaking before the Havelock Commercial club, declared in favor of intervention in Mexico. He added that Nebraska could furnish, within two weeks, 4,000 trained militiamen. Relating personal experiences in Mexico, the executive declared there is a lack of intelligence and education and a maximum of squalor and degradation which could be remedied only by intervention.

Thunderstorms and Lightning.

In the United States thunderstorms are four or five times as frequent east of the Rocky mountains as west, omitting from consideration parts of Arizona and New Mexico. This is due to the generally mountainous condition of the west. Lightning is most frequent in Florida and Illinois.

She Does.

"What does this nation need?" shouted the impassioned orator. "What does this nation require, if she steps proudly across the Pacific, if she stride boldly across the Pacific ocean in her march of trade and freedom? I repeat, what does she need?" "Rubber boots," suggested the grossly materialistic person in a rear seat.

Had His Number.

The newly accepted young man was "making up" to his sweetheart's impish small brother. Willie, evincing a desire to inspect his watch charm, the visitor lifted Willie to his lap. In a pause of general conversation Willie piped, shrilly: "Am I as heavy as sister Mabel?"

Do You Know This?

The middle verse of the Bible is the eighth verse of the 118th psalm. The twenty-first verse of the seventh chapter of Ezra contains all the letters of the alphabet except the letter "j." The longest verse is the ninth verse of the eighth chapter of Esther. The shortest verse is the ninth verse of the eleventh chapter of St. John.

Inspiration.

"At last," cried the musician, "I have fame within my grasp." "How so?" asked his wife, who had heard the same thing before. "You know Mendelssohn's 'Wedding March,' and the marvelous repute it brought him?" said the musician. "Yes, but what of it?" "Well, I'm going to write a divorce march."—Life.

STRIPES DISCARDED IN SAN QUENTIN PEN

John E. Hoyle.

Warden John E. Hoyle of the San Quentin prison in California has just brought to pass what he considers a great reform. Through his efforts stripes, called by poets "the degradation of the convict," and by ultra-reformers "the medievalism of our modern prisons," are seen no longer at the famous penal institution. Instead, the prisoners are now clad in neat suits of cadet gray-blue.

Girls, it isn't always wise to follow your mother's example when you mother's example when you fall in love.

SAILORS APPEAR FOR ARMY GAME

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—New York will be invaded by the first detachment of the future leaders of the fighting forces of the country tonight when the Navy football squad will arrive for the annual game with the Army Saturday.

The Navy went through a final and brisk drill yesterday. This afternoon the squad will board a train at 3:40 bound for New York. Signals will be rehearsed on the roof of the Hotel Vanderbilt and the Polo grounds will be visited.

The Army squad will not leave West Point until tomorrow morning. They are confident their game has been greatly strengthened by the pointers coaches from Michigan gave them. All of the regulars are in good condition.

BEAT DOWN ODDS

AUSTIN, Texas, Nov. 27.—Texans with hefty rolls reached town today and began hammering down the odds on Notre Dame in this afternoon's game with the University of Texas, until the Catholics were favorites by only about 8 to 5, whereas the figures last night were 5 to 2.

Of the two million trees to be planted on the national forests of Montana and northern Idaho during the present fiscal year, one-half have been set out this fall and the rest will be put in next spring.

WANT CHANGE IN EASTERN SCHEDULE

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Nov. 27.—A change may be made in the Yale-Harvard-Princeton schedules before the football games of next year are played. Yale is said to have requested more time between the Princeton and Harvard games and has suggested that the annual game with the Crimson be played on Thanksgiving day instead of the Saturday before the holiday.

TINKER AGAIN CUB?

CHICAGO, Nov. 27.—Stories of a possible swap that will bring Joe Tinker to the Cubs after his work in the Philadelphia fans after his work in the world's series.

ti Reds, back to Cubland, floated over the Thanksgiving turkey today. Tinker is in business here and admitted he would be mighty glad to get back to Chicago. Manager John Evers of the Cubs said that in spite of his former squabbles with Tinker, he would like to see him back in the Cub infield.

BUSH GIFT AUTO KILLS

BRainerd, Minn., Nov. 27.—A coroner's jury today expected to exonerate Leslie Joe Bush, Athletics twirler, who ran down and killed Louis T. Miller, 75, last night in the automobile presented to him by Philadelphia fans after his work in the world's series.

PENN HAS EDGE OVER ITHACANS

Keystone Staters Favorites in Annual Clash in Philadelphia Today

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Nov. 27.—Pennsylvania had a slight edge in the betting on today's annual Thanksgiving classic on Penn Field with Cornell. Comparative scores of the eleven and the inevitable vicious fight which the Philadelphians always put up in this final contest against the Ithacans put the visitors on the short end of 10 to 8 bets. However, "Millionaire Row" inhabitants from Cornell, as usual, accepted all bets in sight, on the strength of promises from coaches that Cornell will shake from her sleeve several surprises in the nature of forward and double passes.

Society from Washington and Baltimore stopped over here today enroute to the Army-Navy struggle on the Polo grounds in New York Saturday. Added to these visitors were hundreds of guests at the usual holiday hops and college social functions, so that when time was called, close to 30,000 spectators packed the field.

On comparative showing this year the Quakers deserve very little odds over Cornell. Each team has played nine games with opponents of about equal caliber. Indiana, Pittsburg, Harvard and Michigan have beaten Cornell, and the strong Colgate eleven got only a 0 to 0 tie with the Ithacans. Penn lost to Dartmouth and Michigan, and held the galloping Carlisle Indians to 7-7. Michigan defeated Cornell 17-0. The same team beat Penn 13-0. Cornell beat Lafayette 10-2 and Penn beat the same aggregation 10-0. Cornell's total score stands 111 against their opponents' 89. Penn has scored 169 against their opponents' 79. Today's game is the 21st successive contest between Penn and Cornell. In this time Cornell has won but once—in 1901 by 23 to 6. Cornell held Penn to a 4-0 score in 1897; in 1905 Penn won by 6 to 5 and in 1906 there was no score. Penn won all the other games with a margin of more than one touchdown excepting last year when the score was Penn 7, Cornell 2.

PACKEY TOYS WITH KANSAS CITY LAD

WINDSOR, Ont., Nov. 27.—Never in his fistie career has Harry Brewer of Kansas City stopped so many punches with his face and body as last night, when he appeared as the toy of Packey McFarland of Chicago, in an eight round fight before the Windsor Athletic club. Brewer so admitted today.

Although the Stock Yards boy was evidently in wretched condition, almost on the verge of "hog fat" his dazzling cleverness was more than enough to stop anything Brewer had to offer. While never seeming to try for the knockout punch, Packey hit Brewer when and where he pleased. The best that can be said for Brewer is that he kept everlastingly at it and was willing to take all of Packey's punches for the chance to land one himself. But his chance never came. The Chicago fighter left the ring without a mark.

RATHER BE SICK THAN A SCRAPPER

CHICAGO, Nov. 27.—"There's more money in being a Tuberk," commented Tim O'Neill, Ironclad middleweight, sadly today when he learned that his share of the receipts from the bout with George Chip at Racine Tuesday night totalled only $85. Enroute to Racine, Chicago ring followers took up a collection to send "Kid" Farmer, ex-lightweight, to Colorado for tuberculosis treatment. The collection totalled $92.

FINN BEATS TWO MEN

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—Hans Kohlenman, the sensational Finn runner, had another record to his credit today. He defeated a relay team of two men in a two mile race at the Thirteenth Regiment armory in 9:25 3-5.
